

Common Threads Wearable Art

Showcase Casting and Auditions

WANTED! Actors • Dancers • Models

We are looking to the community to find a brilliant cast who will model garments and perform in the 2016 Common Threads Wearable Art Showcase. You will work with Melbourne based Director Helen Duncan and Perth based Choreographer Laura Boynes, alongside a dynamic team of professional performers.

Experience is fantastic but not compulsory. Age is no barrier, we enthusiastically welcome people of any age (from 14yrs+). This vibrant professional show takes place right here in Mandurah performing to a large audience in the Boardwalk Theatre at the Mandurah Performing Arts Centre on Saturday, 7 May 2016.

The Common Threads Wearable Art Showcase presents a selection of garments from across Australia and beyond, in a highly entertaining performance feast. This full-length theatrical production delights its audiences, presenting spectacular wearable creations alongside professional theatre, dance and song.

“Outrageously inventive”, Duncan Ord, Director General of the Department of Culture and the Arts

“Fantastic production – enjoyed every minute of it!”, Aly May, Stylist and Fashion Lecturer

This exciting event offers its performers great reward including:

- Participation in a series of professional development workshops
- An opportunity to work in a professional production
- Professional hair and makeup
- Complimentary professional photos
- Complimentary footage of the showcase
