CAN's Sunset Showcase in Kellerberrin

Wheatbelt residents will be treated to a spectacular showcase of music and dance at this year's annual street party in Kellerberrin.

The concert, presented by Community Arts Network, will feature the soulful sounds of Gina Williams and Guy Ghouse.

Winners of the 2015 WAM Award for best Indigenous act, this will be one of the last performances the pair will give as a duo.

"This final show is very special for CAN as Gina and Guy have worked closely with us in Kellerberrin and surrounding towns for many years, delivering our Voices of the Wheatbelt - Healing Songs program."

"We feel honoured that one of their last shows will be with CAN, in Kellerberrin," said Acting CEO June Moorhouse.

Joining the lineup will be local favourites Static Crew and Lil Sparks. The all Noongar hop hip group is looking forward to wrapping up an exciting 2015 with a high energy routine in front of their home town. As well as a charming quartette danced by tiny local ballet stars.

There will be a special guest performance by two dancers from Ochre Dance Company which aims to tell uniquely Australian stories through dance. The specially created duet will be accompanied by a fusion of didgeridoo and western classical music.

The concert will take place on Massingham Street, Kellerberrin, on Friday 11 December from 5.30pm – 7.30pm. The event is free and everyone is welcome.
